A certification as defined by CCE is a voluntary process by which a nongovernmental agency or association grants recognition to an individual who has met predetermined qualifications specified by the agency or association. Such qualifications must include graduation from an accredited or approved training program, acceptable performance on a qualifying examination, and completion of some specified amount or type of work experience. The certification granted must be time-limited and require documentation of continuing education in order to renew. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit a copy of their coaching certification to CCE for review prior to submitting the BCC application.
